
L^2 curvature for surfaces in Riemannian manifolds

ERNST KUWERT

For surfaces immersed into a compact Riemannian manifold, we consider the curvature functional given by the L^2 integral of the second fundamental form. We discuss an area bound in terms of the energy, with application to the existence of minimizers. This is joint work with V. Bangert.

Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg, Germany