

COMBINATORICS OF THE BULLET PROBLEM

BROUTIN NICOLAS

The finite colliding bullets problem is the following simple problem: consider a gun, whose barrel remains in a fixed direction; at each time  $1, 2, \dots, n$ , shoot a bullet with a uniform and independent random speed. When two bullets collide, they both annihilate. What is the distribution of the number of bullets that never collide ?