

ALGORITHMIC COUNTING OF NONEQUIVALENT COMPACT HUFFMAN CODES

HEUBERGER CLEMENS

It is known that the number of nonequivalent compact Huffman codes of length n over an alphabet of t letters equals the number of “nonequivalent” canonical rooted t -ary trees with n leaves. By using generating functions, we are able to compute this sequence for all n