

Work in progress with Julien Sedro: We consider characteristic exponents of products of transfer operators coming from random dynamical systems of finite degree of smoothness. Already measurability becomes 'tricky' and to extract smoothness properties of the exponents we borrow techniques from Julien's thesis.