

REPRESENTATIONS OF CLASSICAL LIE GROUPS: TWO GROWTH REGIMES

ALEXEY BUFETOV

Abstract: Asymptotic representation theory deals with representations of groups of growing size. For classical Lie groups there are two distinguished regimes of growth. One of them is related to representations of infinite-dimensional groups, and the other appears in combinatorial and probabilistic questions. In the talk I will discuss differences and similarities between these two settings.