

Title. Quasi-treeable equivalence relations

Abstract. A countable Borel equivalence relation is said to be treeable if there is a Borel assignment of a tree on each equivalence class. We prove various results showing that every Borel assignment of "large-scale approximate trees" can be turned into genuine trees, thereby yielding new sufficient criteria for treeability. Joint with Antoine Poulin, Ran Tao, and Anush Tserunyan.