

Title. Finding the patterns $\{x, y, xy, x+y\}$ in colorings of the rationals.

Abstract. We show that for every coloring of the rationals into finitely many colors, one of the colors contains a set of the form $\{x, y, xy, x+y\}$ for some nonzero x and y . Joint work with Matt Bowen