

Title: Markov kernels as graph limits

Abstract: We report on recent progress in a branch of graph limit theory that uses Markov kernels to represent limits of convergent graph sequences. We show that under certain smoothness conditions Feynman type integrals (and thus subgraph densities) can be calculated in such objects. Joint work with David Kunszenti-Kovacs and Laszlo Lovasz.