

In this session, we want to address a quantum/classical approach of complex systems, with applications to system/bath interactions. We will discuss mathematical results and systems from chemistry. The session consists in several talks, from mathematicians and chemists, aiming at setting a ground for discussions.