

During this session, we aim at discussing wave packets approaches for algorithmic resolution of the semi-classical Schrödinger equation. We will discuss surface hoppings and Herman-Kluk for systems, and proofs of their convergence, together with models that would suit for testing such ideas.