

Stabilization of kinetic equations

Michael HERTY

Department of Mathematics Aachen University

Abstract : We are interested in the stabilisation of linear kinetic equations for applications in e.g. closed-loop feedback control. Progress has been made in recent years on stabilisation of hyperbolic balance equations using special Lyapunov functions. However, those are not necessarily suitable for the kinetic equation. We present results on kinetic equations under uncertainties and closed loop feedback control.