

Distance-related problems in planar graphs and graphs of bounded treewidth

Sergio Cabello

I will present some of the algorithmic research about the computation of the diameter, the sum of (the inverse of) the distances between all pairs of distinct vertices and the representation of distances from a face to all vertices for planar graphs and graphs of bounded genus. We will also discuss the case of graphs of bounded treewidth.