

Remarks on opetopic types

Eric Finster

I will describe how to add a definition of opetopic type to Martin-Löf type theory by rendering definitional the signature of certain polynomial monads. Moreover, I will survey some constructions which can be made in this theory and remark on the outlook for formalizing higher dimensional structures using this approach.