

Alexei Skorobogatov, Imperial College London

Title: Computing the Brauer group

Abstract: I would like to discuss methods for explicit calculation of the Brauer group of a variety. This requires understanding differentials of Hochschild-Serre spectral sequences. I will illustrate what is currently known and not known in some crucial examples such as abelian varieties, tori, and simply connected surfaces (e.g., diagonal surfaces of arbitrary degree).