

Zero sets of real multi-affine hypersurfaces

Daniel Perucci

In this talk we will first discuss some bounds on the number of connected components of the zero sets of real multi-affine hypersurfaces. Then we will see some implications these bounds have in the study of the topology of real algebraic symmetric sets. This is a joint work with Saugata Basu (Purdue University).