

Symmetry groups of projective algebraic varieties

Michel Brion

A version of the inverse Galois problem asks whether every algebraic group is the automorphism group of some projective algebraic variety. A positive answer is known for finite groups. We will present a positive answer in the setting of connected algebraic groups.