

Connection Algebras

Hans Munthe-Kaas

Connection algebras are algebras defined by a connection on the vector fields of a manifold. This is closely related to the symmetries of the space. We give an overview of recent developments; pre-Lie, post-Lie, Lie Admissible Triple algebras and the case of general connections. Applications in analysis of numerical integration algorithms for dynamical systems evolving on manifolds.