

Title: Cohomology and tiling spaces

Abstract: The Čech cohomology of a tiling space is a powerful and easily computed tool to understand deformations of that tiling space and maps to and from that space. After reviewing the formalism, I'll explain how cohomology is THE key tool for understanding the recently discovered Hat and Spectre tilings (as well as the best thing since sliced bread).